

All news >>

July 10, 2009

Mayor of Phoenix visits Montréal

Left to right: Alan DeSousa, Mayor of Saint-Laurent and member of the Executive Committee in charge of Sustainable Development, Phil Gordon, Mayor of Phoenix, Gérald Tremblay, Mayor of Montréal, and Lee McClenny, US Consul General in Montréal.

Earlier this week, the City of Montréal welcomed the Mayor of Phoenix, Phil Gordon. The Mayor's entourage included representatives of the Canada Arizona Business Council and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council, the organizations behind the mission to Montréal.

Phil Gordon had a chance to speak with the Mayor of Montréal, Gérald Tremblay. He also met with Québec airport authorities to discuss the possibility of a direct link between Montréal and Phoenix, in order to boost tourism between the two cities and promote relations and business partnerships between companies and institutions. The Délégation du Québec à Los Angeles (Québec government office in Los Angeles) provided support for the preparation of the mission.

Phoenix, Arizona, is the fifth-largest city in the United States. Arizona is one of the 13 western U.S. states covered by the Délégation du Québec à Los Angeles.

Québec

© Gouvernement du Québec, 2009